Dr Parimal Banerji's Advanced Homeopathy Postgraduate Course emphasises case-taking skills, remedy selection and extends your previous training in Homeopathy.

You will gain a clearer understanding of symptom patterns for a vast array of clinical conditions so that you can accurately:

- select the correct homeopathic medicine
  - the optimum potency
- the appropriate repetition of the dose
- get the best results for your patients

Dr Parimal Banerji's Advanced Homeopathy has a strong theoretical foundation, based on the careful evaluation of literally millions of prescriptions over 60 years at his clinics in India. This Advanced Homeopathy Postgraduate program extends your basic training in Homeopathy by providing a clearer understanding of symptom patterns that will lead you to the correct remedy and help you to identify the optimum potency and frequency of dose to get the best results for your patients.

This course is open to qualified Homeopaths and Naturopaths, and is recognised by the Australian Register of Homeopaths (AROH)

For more than 20 years, a number of practitioners had the privilege to attend intensive study programs at Dr Banerji's clinics at Asansol and Kolkata in India. These programs involved extensive study in the theory and therapeutics of Advanced Homeopathy and were reinforced by participation in thousands of consultations for acute and chronic conditions. Many practitioners who expressed a desire to learn this methodology were unable to attend the intensive study programs in India. As a result, Dr Banerji kindly consented to the presentation of this comprehensive study program.

You will learn new case-taking skills aimed at accurate selection of the remedy, potency and repetition of dose. You will gain knowledge of the symptom patterns for various conditions and differential diagnoses relevant to homeopathic prescribing. This is essential in dealing with difficult and complex cases!

The program also includes a review of symptomatology and pathophysiology to enhance your understanding of the disease processes affecting your patients. And this knowledge will increase your ability to select the most appropriate homeopathic medicine.
